What not to miss at Art Basel Miami

Patchwork pieces, tech iPad sculptures and hip hop artists – ABM is inundated with multicultural creativity and we've collated the best of the bunch

Ajay Kurian's work often features interesting material choices. This piece, "Untitled" contains an iPad holder

AJAY KURIAN

This artist's incredible installation vitrines, brain-like expanded foams and bonito flake dirt sculptures have a touch of the Mike Kelley about them (which is never a bad thing.) The detritus of modern technology hints towards a cyber organic all play into this very engaging work.
